

MINDAUGAS ŠILINKAS

CEO of Euromediena group companies

Deputy chairman of Forest owners association of Lithuania

Member of the board of science and business valley

“Nemunas”

At Euromediena group responsible for strategy, development and implementation of circular economy and bio-based economy concepts.

Euromediena, which started as a spin-off from biotechnology laboratory of Lithuanian forest research institute, today is the leading biomass plantation developer with over 2000 ha of biomass plantations under management and leading nutrient recycling (circular economy) concept facilitator in Lithuania.

As representative of Forest owners association of Lithuania, responsible for issues related to forestry activities of Rural development program, bioeconomy and clustering activities, participates in EU CDG on Rural development, EIP AGRI OG “Sustainable mobilization of forest biomass”.